Features Quest Starter Sets, Launch Sets,

Composite Propellant Model Rocket Motors.

Q-JET
By AEROTECH

Introducing New
Q-Jet E35W and F41W
24mm x 95mm
Composite Propellant
Model Rocket Motors!

- The new E35W Rocket Motor is a full "E" producing nearly 40 N-sec of Total Impulse with a 1.1 second burn time, a propellant weight of 26.5 g and a total weight of 58.5 g.
- The new F41W Rocket Motor is a mid-range "F" delivering 45 N-sec of Total Impulse with a 1.1 second burn time, a propellant weight of 30 g and a total weight of 62 g.

- Both new rocket motors feature White Lightning™ propellant, AeroTech's most popular propellant formulation.
- AeroTech's White Lightning propellant produces a brilliant white exhaust plume, bright white smoke and a throaty roar at lift-off.
- These new Q-Jet rocket motors use the same family of aerospace grade solid composite propellant as NASA's space shuttle boosters, military missiles, sounding rockets and NASA's SLS moon rocket boosters.
- Both new 24mm x 95mm rocket motors will be available in 5, 8 and 11 second delay times.
- No need for an internal motor block as both new rocket motors feature a built-in motor thrust ring.
- The new Q-Jet 24mm x 95mm E35W and F41W rocket motors are much smaller and 30-40% lighter than their 29mm x 114mm E16 and F15 black powder competitors, and fit a much broader range of rocket kits.
- The new smaller and lighter Q-Jet E35W rocket motor delivers a significantly higher Total Impulse than the black powder E16 rocket motor.
- The new Q-Jet F41W rocket motor is nearly the same power as the F15 black powder rocket motor, but is much smaller and lighter producing greater performance potential.
- The new Q-Jet E35W and F41W rocket motors are USPS shippable with no HazMat fee, unlike the E16 and F15 black powder rocket motors.
- Packaged in full-color 2-pack clamshells, the E35W rocket motors will have an SRP of $24.99 and the F41W rocket motors will have an SRP of $28.99.

ROCK POLISHING

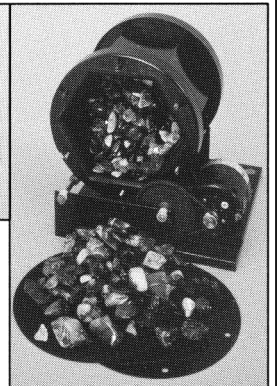

The tumbling of stones is as old as the earth, for Nature has been doing so in many ways since the beginning. Glaciers, wind, rivers and the oceans provide an incessant tumbling of Nature's variety of rocks.

There are very few people who have not at one time or another carried home a pocketful of interesting or "pretty" rocks from a hike or vacation trip. It is a natural interest and curiosity we all experience, for in the world of Nature, surely few things are more important than earth and rocks beneath our feet.

2WD ASSEMBLY KIT

▶ WATCH VIDEO!

Customized Classic

Feast your eyes on this customized version of the classic Wild One Off-Roader, which is the work of Blockhead Motors' creative driving force Jun Watanabe. Given a tasteful blue livery, the polycarbonate body is pre-painted and cut, and can be fitted with the included window netting, car number boards, and even a dummy antenna for that quintessentially retro look. Dedicated sticker designs feature the Blockhead Motors logo among many more. Its 2WD chassis is based around a plastic box frame compatible with modern power-sources, and featuring plenty of metal and plated components.
